

Privacy Notice

The Philippine Academy of Family Physicians respects your privacy. We aim to comply with the Data Privacy Act of 2012 and all relevant laws and regulations. This Privacy Notice tells you about the information we collect, use, or otherwise process in relation to your membership with the organization.

When you register or update your member details, we collect your Personal Details, Account Information, Contact Information, Membership Information, and Employment Information.

The information shall only be used for purposes that you have authorized us to do and only to the extent authorized or required by law including PAFP's legitimate interests. Your information will also be used for the following purposes:

1. processing your membership with the academy;
2. processing of your registration and controlling your access to our conventions, seminars, training courses, and similar activities;
3. documentation and processing of inquiries and requests within the PAFP;
4. updating of membership information;
5. administering member benefits;
6. verification and certification of your membership;
7. establishing and maintaining member information systems;
8. communication and providing you with the appropriate updates and advisories;
9. solicit feedback on the services we provide;
10. compiling and generating reports for statistical and research purposes;
11. comply with a legal obligation to which the PAFP is subject;
12. protect, defend or establish PAFP's lawful interest; and
13. provide you and other data subjects with the appropriate action that you or other data subjects may require concerning their data privacy rights.

Your information shall not be disclosed, shared, or transferred to any other party unless you have consented to it or is allowed or required under the law. They shall be stored and transmitted securely in a variety of paper and electronic formats. Access to your personal data is limited to PAFP personnel, officers, and third parties who have been given authority and need it only for the purpose of carrying out their duties or contractual obligations. Your information shall only be retained until the purpose for which it was collected has been attained or as indicated in our policy. Thereafter, they shall be disposed securely.

We recognize and respect your rights as a data subject. Should you have any questions or concerns or wish to exercise them, please contact our Data Protection Officer at pafp.dpo@thepafp.net.
